

About Us

Forever & Always is a family owned and operated business, inspired by the simple elegance of the South. A lifelong dream was made a reality in 2009 when Forever & Always opened up their doors and began creating masterpieces. Since the beginning, we have planned more than 300 weddings, each with their own distinct personality. We value our clients and want their day to be special and unique, therefore no one wedding has ever been the same. Named “The Number One New Event Company in the Southeast” for 2010, Forever & Always promises to exceed expectations and go beyond what you ever imagined.

Testimonials

“Thank you for planning and creating such a beautiful wedding day for us. We were so lucky to have all your care and extra attention. The beach set-up and flowers were breath-taking, and the reception design suited us perfectly.”

—John and Libby Westfield

“I would like to take a moment to thank Forever & Always for the most memorable experience of my life. Thank you for making our wedding day so perfect. No detail went unnoticed and you gave me a chance to truly enjoy my day! Your guidance, support and efficiency was incredible!”

—Tyler and Sophia Porter
